

If you are feeling unwell or worried about anything you can speak to your Care Team or any of the staff.

Your Care Team are the special group of teachers who make sure everyone is happy in BTC. They have an office in the school and you see them around the school all the time. They will also meet you on your first day.

